Traffic Accidents Claim Two Lives Over Weekend

Victims Paul Rose, 22, T. C. Kellerman, 65, Die In Separate Crashes

A Granite City man was killed in an auto-train crash at the 14th street-Edwardsville road rail crossing Friday night, and a former Granite Cityan died Friday afternoon of injuries suffered three hours earlier in a two-car collision near Glen Carbon.

They were among the 634 traffic fatalities reported over the four-day Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

The victims are—
Paul Edward Rose, 22, of Apt. 8, 2201 State street, formerly of Madison, and Theodore C. Kellerman, 65, of Box 172, Glen Carbon, formerly of Granite City.

Mr. Rose, a laborer for the Nestle Co. who was released from the Navy only a month ago, was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth hospital of head and internal injuries.

Pinned in Wreckage
He and a passenger, Clifford Robinson, 21, of 2248 Lee avenue, who is a patient at the hospital with fractures to both legs and facial cuts, were pinned in the wreckage for over 15 minutes.

Police said the auto was being driven by Rose and hit the rear of a Granite City Steel Co. switch engine being operated by Harold Swilley.

The crash occurred at 9:30 p.m. Friday when the engine was in the midst of the lane highway, police said. A police car was on the opposite side of the crossing when the crash occurred.

A witness told the Press-Record that although the flashes warning lights were working, the conditions were smoky and murky and the engine was barely visible. Its bell also was barely audible, the witness said.

Native of Madison
Mr. Rose was born in Madison and had lived in Granite City one month. He and his wife, Sandra (Robertson) Rose, were married 13 months ago.

Other survivors are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rose, 1927 Fourth street, Madison, and sister, Mrs. Dale (Sandra) Shorey of Granite City, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira McDowell of Dixon, Mo., and George Rose of Lutetia, Mo.

Funeral services were held today. Further information is given in today's obituary column.

Dies at Highland Hospital
Mr. Kellerman, a native Granite Cityan, died at 1:05 p.m. Friday at St. Joseph's hospital, Highland. He had been injured in a two-car crash at 9:55 a.m. the same day.

The collision occurred in a light rain when Mr. Kellerman was driving off Glen Carbon road onto Route 159. The other car was being operated south on Route 159 by Daniel Winters, 17, of Collinsville.

Mr. Kellerman was on his way to attend the Requiem (Continued on page 27, col. 5)

5 Held in Venice Theft of $6000 Worth of Brass

A lost check stub found beside a storage container at Purdy Iron & Metal Co. of Venice, where $6000 worth of brass journals were stolen Nov. 18, led to the arrest of five men and a police search for a sixth.

Police said that Smith was released on his own recognizance because he is the father of eight children. The others were held in the Venice jail. All were scheduled to be arraigned later today in magistrate's court.

Sold for $1000
Venice authorities charged the stolen brass was hauled to St. Louis in a borrowed pickup truck and sold by the men for a sum believed by police to be about $1000. Five of the six men split $180 each and the sixth man received $100 for participating in the theft, police alleged.

The theft occurred in the early hours of Saturday, Nov. 18, and was discovered about 7:30 a.m. that day by an employee of the company. The thieves obtained the brass by taking a cutting torch from a storage shed and cutting an 18x16-inch opening in an inverted steel tank under storage.

Police said their only clue in investigation of the theft was a wrinkled check stub from (Continued on page 27, col. 7)

FIRST PICKETING in the boycott of Madison high school by white parents and students got under way this morning, although the walkout has been 90% effective for the past week. The pickets are parents of high school students. Spokesmen for the parents committee claim they will continue the boycott until seven members of the Madison school board resign.

MHS Picketed But Fewer Students Absent

Parents of white students at Madison high school set up a picket line in front of the school this morning in efforts to intensify their boycott that began a week ago.

Despite the use of pickets, who were not present last week, attendance at the high school and the district's three predominantly white schools showed an increase today.

The office of Raymond Dracht, Madison school superintendent, said attendance of white students at the high school was up about 100 over last week with a total attendance this morning of 450 (150 white and 300 Negro) students.

Of the 1700 students in the high school, Madison junior high school and Louis Racer and Harris grade schools, about 650 were absent this morning, school officials said. Last week, approximately 1000 white students boycotted classes in the four schools. A Negro boycott occurred the previous week.

Picketing Starts Early
Picketing at the high school got under way at 7:30 a.m. today. There were no pickets at the other schools.

Eight pickets—seven women and one man—carried placards which read: "Rules and Regulations Which Must Be Obeyed," "We Want Safe Schools," "We Have Seven Benedict Arnolds," "Back Our Coaches and Faculty" and "Send Our Children to Schools Nearest Their Homes."

Decision to use pickets at the school followed the apparent development of a second faction of parents who said they were advised by Mrs. Muriel Byrne, a former Madison resident active in school affairs and a former candidate for school board.

Mrs. Byrne, who now lives in Granite City, entered the Madison school problem at the request of a group of white parents who said they "asked Mrs. Byrne for advice."

Several mothers on the high school picket line, who declined use of their names, told the Press-Record today that Mrs. Byrne was taking no active leading part in the white parents' protest movement and that she met with some of the white parents "only in an advisory capacity."

Seek Resignations
Mrs. Byrne advised the group not to relax the boycott, but to continue it until "the school board members resign."

Parents supporting the current boycott have been represented by eight white parents of a 16-member biracial committee that was named in a public meeting nearly three weeks ago.

Meanwhile, Wilbur R. L. Trimpe, Madison county superintendent of schools, said he has been in touch with the office of Ray Page, Illinois superintendent of public instruction, concerning the Madison problem and that "it probably be in touch with them again."

He said he had made no move to call a meeting between the parents, the school board and state officials "because of developments over the weekend."

These developments, he said, were the decision of the parents to continue the boycott and the picketing of MHS this morning. "They didn't do what I told them to do," Trimpe said. He explained that in a meeting with the parents committee last Wednesday, he advised the parents to send their children back to school and work out their problems in subsequent meetings with school officials.

PFC RICHARD KIMBALL
Killed in Action

PFC PERRY RAMSEY
Missing in Action

All 4 Serving in 173rd Airborne during Fierce Fighting last Week

Hill 875 at Dak To, South Vietnam, will long be remembered in the Quad-Cities.

Three local youths were killed and parents of one other listed as missing in action are waiting and praying for good news. Even in world war II, the Quad-Cities was not hit as hard in one encounter. The number of Quad-Cityans killed in Vietnam now is 12.

All four men were paratroopers in the Army's 2nd Battalion of the 503rd Infantry, 173rd Airborne Brigade.

Killed in Action were:
Pfc William C. Hinkle, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Deneen L. Hinkle, Box 570, Rural Route One.

Sgt. Michael E. Adams, 19, husband of Mrs. Linda (Dad) Adams, Box 711, Rural Route Two and son of Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, 621 Margaret street, Mitchell.

Pfc. Richard N. Kimball, 24, husband of Mrs. Constance (Eravy) Kimball, 3604 Kirkpatrick Homes, and father of two daughters, Teri, 4, and Kimberly, 2. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kimball, live in Syracuse, N.Y.

Missing in Action is:
Pfc Perry Ramsey, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wald D. Ramsey, 1647a Market street, Madison.

Telegrams to the families went out Thanksgiving Day and on Friday. The family of Pfc Hinkle was first advised he was missing in action and then on Friday night received word he had been killed.

No details of any of the actions were immediately available other than Pfc Hinkle died of fragmentation wounds on Nov. 21.

Sgt. Adams was last seen while engaging the enemy on Nov. 19. He and his parents were notified of his death yesterday. Word of Pfc Kimball's death was received here this morning. Pfc Ramsey and Pfc Kimball were reported missing Nov. 20.

Dispatches from Dak To during Thanksgiving Week told of the fierce fighting which took a heavy toll in the 2nd Battalion.

Hand-to-Hand Fighting
Hill 875 was captured in 21 days of fighting—hand-to-hand and bunker-hopping in the jungle foliage which provided the fiercest advantage to the communist forces.

The Hill was the scene of bitterest fighting for a period of 110 hours that started Nov. 18. American casualty counts ranged from 250 to 300 men killed and 300 wounded.

Pfc Hinkle was graduated in 1966 from Granite City high school and enlisted the same year. He arrived in Vietnam on Oct. 8. Before joining the 173rd Airborne Brigade, he was with the Green Beret Special Forces.

Pfc Hinkle, while a native of Vandalia, Ill., lived here most of his life. He was a member of Grace Baptist Church, the Granite City Order of DeMolays, and when in high school was active as a Candy Stripper at St. Elizabeth Hospital and in Junior Achievement. He also worked in the commercial art department of Tri-City Grocery Co. here.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by three brothers, Iohn, 18, Charles, 15, and Danny, 14, all at home; and his grandmother, Mrs. Vivian Sawyer, Rural Route One.

Meeting Dec. 3 on Village Plan; Opposition Discussed

Possible opposition to incorporation of western Mitchell as a village developed yesterday afternoon at a meeting of a group which called a public meeting for 2 p.m. next Sunday, Dec. 3.

Arthur Boyle was named acting chairman. The parish hall will be the meeting place. A legal authority is to be present to answer questions.

It was brought out that petitions for an election to create the proposed village of Chouteau were filed by part of a committee Nov. 20, only one day after residents had formed the eight-member committee to investigate the feasibility of a village.

The unexpected speed prevented the committee from completing its study of whether to proceed. As a result, some of those originally for the plan now oppose it.

Incorporation backers are trying to "stampede" voters by alleging that they are about to be "gobbled up" by Granite City, but the city could not actually annex part of Mitchell without being contiguous and without the approval of those affected, yesterday's meeting was told.

Taxes, Services
Possible disadvantages of forming a village cited were:
1. Property taxes might increase one-third.
2. Some county road and other services might be lost. Village services would be limited to those that could be financed from village taxes and licenses.
3. Large property owners in (Continued on page 21, col. 5)

Stray Horses Swarm GC; Police Stage Roundup

Six race horses, among a herd of 13 which fled from the farm of Dr. C. C. Kane, St. Clair county corner, Friday night, were rounded up in Granite City Saturday morning by police and volunteer "cowboys."

They were corralled in yards at 23rd and Iowa streets and at 14th street and Edwardsville road pending return to the farm located in the bluffs in the area of Interstate 270 and Highway 157. The horses apparently had galloped during the night along Route 162.

Several other volunteers with their horse vans to return the steeds. Police were faced with an additional problem as they could not locate Dr. Kane.

The horses, born last spring, still are unbroken. They are valued at about $1000 each as potential racing steeds.

9 Undergo Surgery At Local Hospital

The following have undergone major surgery at St. Elizabeth hospital since last Wednesday:
Joseph Parente, 1621 Lindell blvd.; Mary Mathes, 2728 Marshall avenue; Linda Terry, 605 Kirkpatrick homes; Fred Flaughner, 2120 Ohio avenue.
Juanita Wolfe, 3011 Ames avenue; Frances Bishop, 2860 Washington avenue; Shella Clubb, 707 State street, Madison; Marsha McCall, Collinsville, and Mollie Fisher, St. Louis.

"TREE OF LIGHTS" being turned on in a ceremony at Memorial Park to mark the opening of Salvation Army's annual campaign to raise funds for Christmas food baskets for needy families. Left to right are—SA Capt. Harold F. Thomas, Howard Kaseberg, Chamber of Commerce president and speaker for the campaign luncheon; Edward Stone, member of the Salvation Army Advisory board; Allen L. Jesse, Tree of Lights chairman; and Rev. R. Paul Sims, pastor of Niedringhaus Memorial Methodist Church, who gave the prayers.

102 Bulbs Still Dark

'Tree of Lights' has 38 Lights Burning

Thirty-eight lights—signifying donations of $50 toward a $6000 goal to provide Christmas food baskets to needy Quad-City area families—were turned on in the Salvation Army's Saturday afternoon ceremony in Memorial Park across from St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Allen L. Jesse, chairman of this year's campaign, said he hopes all 240 lights on the new blue spruce tree will be burning within the next three weeks. The annual tree-lighting ceremony was preceded by a kick-off luncheon at the YMCA at which Howard Kaseberg, president of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, was guest speaker. The welcome address was by Edward Stone, member of the Salvation Army Advisory board.

Also participating in Saturday's kickoff for the annual campaign were Rev. R. Paul Sims, pastor of Niedringhaus Memorial Methodist Church; Salvation Army Capt. Harold F. Thomas, Jesse, and Stone. At the tree-lighting ceremony, Capt. Thomas related that Martin Luther is credited with having the first Christmas tree, and that the hope here is the "Tree of Lights will turn on the light for someone's life."

Each light burning on the tree denotes a contribution of $50. A large board alongside the tree which is along Niedringhaus avenue in Memorial Park, bears a list of the current donors.

Initial Donors

Those announced at the kick-off follow:
H. D. Karandjeff; Senior Citizens of the YMCA; 2 Dr. Steve K. Geroff; E. A. Karandjeff; R. C. Barney; Atty. Morris E. Chapman; 2 Dr. W. W. Bowers; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stone; Illinois Power Co.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Epstein; Granite City Trust & Savings Bank; E. G. Jones Foundation; 2 Mr. and Mrs. Dale Arnette; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoevel; E. J. Miller Co.; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lesko; Gilk's Department store.

Mrs. Laura G. Chosick, 77, of 1721 Olive street, was dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 10:10 a.m. Sunday after being rushed there by ambulance from her home.

Mrs. Chosick, who had been in failing health for several years, had attended 8 o'clock Mass at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, where she was a member, and collapsed shortly after returning home.

She was a native of Warsaw, Poland, and had lived here 57 years.

Survivors include three sons, Stanley Grobowski, John Grobowski and Bernard Chosick, all of Granite City; four daughters, Mrs. George (Bernice) Grimm and Mrs. Jack (Olga) Vartan, both of Granite City; Mrs. Mikulka of Madison and Mrs. Al (Mildred) Robson of St. Louis; 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

E-W Gateway Council Meeting Set Wednesday

Quad-City area mayors and local education, business, labor and civic leaders are being invited to Wednesday's first annual meeting of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council to be held at 7 p.m. in the Bel Air East Motor Inn, St. Louis.

Mayor Alvin G. Fields of East St. Louis is to succeed St. Louis County Supervisor Lawrence K. Ross as chairman of the two-state group. Mayor Alfonso J. Cervantes of St. Louis is to be installed as vice-chairman.

Ross is to outline the agency's activities of the past two years and discuss future proposals; while Bernard Hildebrand, executive director of the National Association of Counties, will discuss metropolitan government problems.

East-West Gateway Council serves as a clearing agency for federal projects in the two-state area.

International Dimension For SIU Undergraduates

The newly emerging "international dimension" of Southern Illinois University—aphrase used by its academic vice-president Robert MacVicar—is being extended into the undergraduate catalog.

Starting with the winter term, special sections of General Studies courses labeled "Inter-cul" will be opened to sophomores. Those courses—in geography and anthropology—to begin with—will stress the cultures and ideas of non-western nations.

William McKeefery, dean of academic affairs, said the inter-cul sections will feature team teaching, special evening sessions, guest lectures by foreign students or faculty members from the areas covered in the courses, and perhaps a summer overseas travel program.

An off-campus meeting and study center similar to the President's Scholars House is being arranged for Inter-cul students, McKeefery said.

"The Inter-cul courses will be sections of sophomore level General Studies zeroing in on the cultures of some area of Africa, the Far East, Latin America or Eastern Europe," McKeefery said. Four sections of cultural anthropology and two of geography are included on the winter class schedule.

The geography department also has opened a senior-graduate level Inter-cul course to sophomores who may already have completed General Studies requirements in the area.

McKeefery said similar Inter-cul offerings in economics and government will be added during spring term. If enough students sign up for it, a quarter of overseas study may be added for the summer term.

The program, noted MacVicar, is "an obvious expansion of the international dimension of the University, a necessary for awareness of non-western ideas and cultures on the part of all educated people."

Two Motorists Charged

For Improper Lights

Two motorists were issued arrest tickets Saturday evening by Granite City police for not having proper lights on motor vehicles.

Bessie Ladd, 1634 Cleveland blvd., was charged with failure to have taillights, and Freeman Jordan, 2664 (r) Iowa street, for having only one headlight.

Wiring Causes $650 Fire

A short circuit in the wiring of a heating pad caused damage of $550 to the contents and $100 to the building at 6 p.m. Friday at the apartment of Frank Kalips sr., 2907 Kirkpatrick Homes, firemen reported.

Voorhees to be Soloist At SIU-SW Yule Concert

Raymond Voorhees of Granite City, a junior voice major at SIU-SW campus, will be a soloist at the annual Christmas concert sponsored by the university and to be held at 8:15 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 3, at Edwardsville senior high school gymnasium.

More than 325 children and adults will participate including four of the university's choral groups, the Chamber orchestra and a youth choir from St. Louis.

The hour and 15-minute performance will be conducted by Leonard Van Camp, director of choral activities at the campus, along with guest directors handling certain segments of the program.

Two Cars Damaged

Two cars driven by Helen L. Bell, 2544 Benton street, was damaged in the rear and one driven by Daniel R. Hill, 4053 Lake drive, was damaged in the front in a collision in the 1300 block of Madison avenue at 9:45 p.m. Wednesday. Madison police said both cars were headed south on Madison. Officers reported the Bell car stopped for a signal at the railroad crossing and was struck from the rear by Hill's car.

Damaged in Madison

Two cars were damaged in a collision at Seventh street and Madison avenue in Madison at 7:40 p.m. Thursday. Madison police said the accident occurred as a car driven by John R. Kravec, 1504 Seventh street, headed south on Madison avenue, was making a left turn onto Seventh street. The other car was being driven north by Gordon A. Bailey, 605 Grand avenue.

Auto Stops, Struck

Upon making a stop, an auto driven by Thomas J. Siczka, 1362 Meridian street, was struck in the rear by another driven by Albert H. Baker Jr., 2313 Edwards street, at 21st street and Washington avenue at 9:40 p.m. Wednesday.

Auto Window Broken

Malvin Pashke, 2300 East 24th street, reported at 7:53 a.m. Friday that vandals threw through the rear window of his auto which was parked in front of his home during the night.

County Undertakes Program To Study Juvenile Problems

A pilot project is being started in a coordinated effort by school, law enforcement and court authorities in Madison county on methods of dealing adequately with juvenile problems.

The pilot program is under the guidance of Chief Judge James O. Monroe Jr. and Magistrate Joseph T. Kelleher of Edwardsville through the cooperation of the school district.

Fifteen specific topics presenting problems in possible criminal conduct involving schools are to be taken up. They include—outsiders in the school (parents, dropout students, burglars and fans at sports events); police interviewing students on school premises; truancy; aggravated student misconduct; news and publicity problems; use of the new county detention home; school record keeping on conduct problems.

Teacher's rights to discipline children; vandalism; school involvement in off-season, off-time, off-grounds misconduct; battered or mistreated children reporting at school; pregnancies; drugs, liquor and smoking; arrest problems, and various disciplines for punishment, discipline or rehabilitation.

Guidelines for handling certain problems at the school attendance center level, others at the school district administrative level and others by police, juvenile authorities or courts are to be studied.

Liaison with the state superintendent of public instruction and with County School Superintendent Wilbur R. L. Trimpe is planned. The discussions and written materials developed in the pilot program at Edwardsville will be available to other school districts in the county.

The new chiropractor has not yet announced where he will establish a practice.

$75,000 Suit Filed

Over GC Steel Accident

A suit for $75,000 filed last week in behalf of Lee R. Caldwell, against Mesta-Wilson-Foster Contractors as a result of an injury accident which occurred June 3, 1966, at Granite City Steel Co.

The complaint states that Caldwell was employed by the Julien Construction Co. at the plant when a vibrator broke and struck him in the head. It alleges the equipment was being operated either by the defendant or had been leased to the Julien firm. Negligence was charged.

SIU Starts 'Headstart' For High School Juniors

High school juniors can get a one-year jump on the college stampede under a new admissions policy in effect at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

SIU's head-start admissions program enables a high school senior in the upper half of his junior class to apply for admission at the end of his sixth semester. If he still ranks in the upper half at graduation time, an SIU admissions slip is OK'd and the student can go directly through registration.

Illinois students must rank in the upper half of their graduating class or achieve high SAT (American College Test) scores to gain admission in the fall quarter. Those in the lower half, but not in the lowest one-third, can enter any other quarter. For bottom-third students, entrance is restricted to the spring and summer quarters, and then on academic probation.

SIU admissions director Jerre Pfaff has sounded the first call for students who plan to enter school next summer or fall. Written applications to his office should include a high school transcript and ACT scores. Applicants then receive an admissions packet including all necessary forms.

Life Insurance is mostly LOVE

Sure, there are things like dividends, annuities, guaranteed pensions . . . but after all, life insurance is mostly love. It's a way of saying, "I care." Life insurance is a bright, confident face that looks to the future without questioning if glory doors will open. Life insurance is the serenity that comes with the knowledge that "foreclosed" sign will not be decorating the front door. Life insurance is the comfortable companion of the graceful years. For families who are richer because they care, life insurance is a lot of things. But mostly love.

Miss Rehlek, Lonnie Oliver Wed on Thanksgiving Day

Miss Andrea M. Rehlek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Rehlek of 1715 Chestnut street, became the bride of Lonnie G. Oliver of Granite City in an 11 a.m. Thanksgiving Day ceremony in St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Peter Betoldo.

The bride wore a sheath gown of white silk with round neckline and sleeves and hemline trimmed in baroque Venise lace, and a detachable train appliqued with floral motifs. The headpiece was of bouffant illusion veil with orange blossoms and self rose. She carried a cascading bouquet of small white mums.

Miss Julie Pomato of Springfield, Ill., a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a sheath gown of pink line trimmed in white baroque lace in style similar to the bride's gown and carried a cascading bouquet of small pink mums.

Marion Pomato of Mt. Olive, Ill., also a cousin of the bride, was best man, and Alvie Oliver and Thomas Oliver of Granite City served as ushers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride's mother wore a blue wool suit ensemble and the groom's mother chose a blue silk crepe dress. Both had white carnation corsages.

More than 100 guests, including the bride's grandfather, Joseph Rehlek of Livingston, Ill., attended the wedding from St. Louis, East Prairie, Mo., Chicago, Mt. Olive, Bend, Gillette, Springfield, Staunton, Wood River, Madison and Granite City.

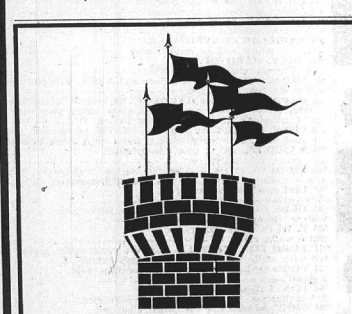

Dinner was served at a reception held in the church. The couple will make their home in Granite City.

The bride, a graduate of Granite City high school and Southern Illinois University-Southern campus, is employed by Union Electric Co., St. Louis.

Mr. Oliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oliver of East Prairie, Mo., is a graduate of the East Prairie high school and is employed at the Chevrolet plant in St. Louis.

MRS. GILBERT E. MANNINO, the former Susan Frances Chalupny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Chalupny, 3152 Princeton drive, whose wedding took place Friday evening at Basilica of St. Louis, King of France, (Old Cathedral), St. Louis, Mo.

L. B. Pattons Entertain Guests

A Thanksgiving Day dinner was hosted Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Patton of 1201 Granite avenue, who entertained their family and friends at the Lewis & Clark restaurant, East Alton.

The honor attendant and bridesmaids wore gowns of cranberry red velvet. The empire bodice had a scoop neckline in the front and was cut square in the back. Tiny bows decorated the front and were off center in the back.

The full length skirts were slightly gathered. All wore big red velvet bows with short veils in their hair and carried cascades of pale pink mums and sweetheart roses, accented with variegated ivy.

Theresa Chalupny of St. Louis, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl, and Timothy John Pyle, another cousin of the bride from St. Louis, was ring bearer. The flower girl wore a short pink dress and had a pink bow in her hair. She carried a white basket of pink and white flowers and ivy.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length gown of hot pink chiffon over taffeta with an imported Chantilly lace bodice. The bodice had a portrait neckline and elbow length sleeves. The A-line skirt was chiffon over taffeta. Velvet ribbon loops trimmed the waistline. The mother of the groom wore a full length gown of royal blue velvet.

Robert Mannino of Newark, Ohio, brother of the groom, was best man, and groomsmen and ushers were George Barhorst of Pacific, Mo., and Charles Pyle, Joseph Chalupny, both of St. Louis, and uncles of the bride.

THE MADISON COUNTY SPORTSMAN

By DON HASTINGS
County Conservation Officer

A brief resume on the deer season: total kill of seven including five bucks and two does. Top buck was 215 lbs. next 207 and next 180 all field dressed weights, so we don't have to take a buck seat to any hunting violations. Included one. Points were a top of about 20, 14, and ten. We only had about 50 permits in the county issued so the kill percentage was not too bad.

All kills were in Silver Creek bottoms except for one near Chain of Rocks canal. There were a number of herds in the county that were apparently untouched. Antlers killed four within two weeks of the season, including one near Alhambra and one near Liberty Prairie both on Route 140 and one near Silver Creek and one near Mitchell, both on I-70. All-in-all, I felt it was a pretty good season.

Violations and arrests as a whole have been plentiful including 11 in October for train-does. Top buck was 215 lbs. next 207 and next 180 all field dressed weights, so we don't have to take a buck seat to any hunting violations. Included one. Points were a top of about 20, 14, and ten. We only had about 50 permits in the county issued so the kill percentage was not too bad.

I have had six arrests in November for hunting on land without permission and a fourth for shooting early and no stamp. I also had occasion to confiscate some steel traps and muskrats for early trapping. As I pointed out to a suspected youthful violator, trapping before season does not make much sense moneywise. Fur is going to be cheap this year and it will take a lot of illegal fur to pay a fine of $25 to

GC Park District's Annual Sports Awards Banquet Wednesday

The Granite City park district's eighth annual sports awards banquet will be held Wednesday evening starting at 6:15 in the new cafeteria at Granite City high school. Between 500 and 550 persons are expected to attend.

Special guests will be Jay Randolph, voice of the St. Louis football Cardinals football team; Dal Maxvill, local Khoury League graduate and St. Louis baseball Cardinals' shortstop; Ken Gray, guard for the Big Red; Jim Hart, Rookie quarterback for the Cardinals, and Pat Fisher, who is a defensive back.

He served as sports director and promotion director for Whar road in Clarkburg, W. Va., in 1966 after being of the service, and now is in the television field.

Ken Gray, a familiar face at the park district banquets, will be making his sixth appearance. He will award the trophies to the boys in his league and sign autographs afterwards.

Gray, a 250-pound guard for the Cardinals, is playing his tenth year with the team. He joined St. Louis from the Green Bay Packers.

A graduate of Howard Paine University, Gray was a selection last season for the All Pro Team.

Jim Hart, the rookie quarterback for the Cardinals, will be making his first appearance in Granite City. He is a graduate of Southern Illinois University fills the spot held by Charley Johnson before he was called to active military duty.

Pat Fisher, a graduate of University of Nebraska, is playing his seventh year with the Cardinals and holds down the spot of the corner line backer.

Last season Fisher was voted then went to the Cards in June of '62.

Unusually small for a big league ball player, Maxvill is onto the All Pro Team along with his teammate Gray.

Dal Maxvill is a Granite City boy who has been playing professional baseball for the past eight years. He played two years in the minor leagues and noted for his tremendous desire that helped him overcome the drawback. His success on the playing field is termed proof positive that success is available to every youngster, if he will give 100% of himself to the goal he is pursuing.

Dal's value in the winning of the '64 World Series was felt again in the Cardinals' winning of the '67 series.

In '64 Maxvill stepped in when Julian Javier was injured and started every game of that Series. He caught the pop fly that ended the series.

In '67 Maxvill played throughout season and again in the World Series he tripled off the center field wall as well as making decisive defensive plays.

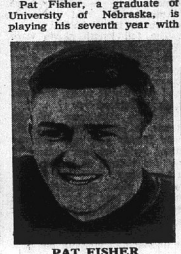

Harold Brown, park district superintendent, said today that 100 tickets will go on sale today to the general public until Tuesday noon. The ticket price is $2.25, and tickets can be obtained at the park office.

Hunter Quotas Filled In 7 Pheasant Areas

Hunter quotas for weekends are filled on five of the seven public pheasant hunting areas, the Illinois Department of Conservation announced today. Some areas, however, do have open dates during the week.

The pheasant season on the areas ends Sunday, Dec. 10. A permit is required to hunt on them.

As of last week, there were openings on the Des Plaines area on Dec. 1, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 only. This area is about 14 miles south of Plainfield on U. S. Route 66.

All weekends are filled on the following areas: Clinton county

6585 Deer Taken In State This Year

Approximately 6585 deer were taken by gun hunters during the 1967 season, the Illinois Department of Conservation announced today. Reports from all check stations must be studied before the final figure, which will be slightly higher, is known.

Technicians rate the season as a success even though 782 fewer deer were taken than last year. Corn picking was behind schedule, and vegetation was heavy. The season was air continuous days, from Nov. 10 through Nov. 15, instead of being divided into two three-day weekends as in previous years. More deer are harvested during the first day of the season than on subsequent days and a season divided into two portions is in effect two different seasons with two days of high kill.

Hunters bagged 3211 whitetails in southern Illinois, 1622 in the central counties, and 1762 in the northern portion of the state. The Pope county kill was 293, below 1966 but the harvest in some areas bordering on this southern county was higher than it was last year.

Hunters bagged large bucks. A 246-pounder was taken in Cass county, one weighing 250 pounds was bagged in McHenry county, and the largest buck, a 257-pounder, was killed in Putnam county. These are field dressed weights, and they are about 26% lower than the live weights of the animals.

Two fatal accidents were reported during the season. One was due to a self-inflicted wound in central Illinois, and the second occurred in northern county, where one hunter was killed by another.

Initial GCIS Wrestling Meet Here This Week

Wrestling—the sport in which Granite City high school most excels—will return to the local sports scene Friday with the Warriors hosting Wood River at 7:30 p.m.

Prather is scheduled to visit Coolidge for a battle of junior high mat squads at 4 p.m. Friday.

The GCIS outlook is cautious, with three of six returning lettermen out with injuries. Co-Captain Bill Gibson, a senior, 10-13 last year, has a bad shoulder; Co-Captain E. F. E. Schwendman, a senior, 11-6, hurt his knee during calisthenics; and Tim Wallace, a junior, 8-13, is recovering from a knee operation.

Clyde Boyd Outlining Labor Institute with SIU-SW Staff

Illness during October prevented a local union official from seeing projects he helped plan for the Southwestern campus of Southern Illinois University materialize, but he was on campus recently to take a good look at the continuing results.

Clyde Boyd, Granite City Third Ward alderman and district labor education coordinator of the United Steelworkers, met with Norman Johnson, director of Labor Institute on the Southwestern campus.

The Labor Institute was initiated earlier this fall at SIU-SW under sponsorship of area union organizations and the University. Boyd, who is chairman of a labor steering committee fostering the training, was absent for both the opening session and a three-day labor seminar in October dedicating the program.

Currently recuperating from an operation that will be followed by another later, Boyd is again meeting with labor and SIU-SW officials to check on the progress of the Labor Institute.

Started officially in October, the institute includes some classes being held in the community and others at the campus.

Boyd, whose education office is here at 19th and State streets, says the short courses in grievance procedures, union leadership, public speaking and other topics will be "the key to greater successes by unions in this area."

Geared primarily for union business agents and shop stewards, the training is designed to develop better union leadership. Rank-and-file members of labor will be invited to attend some courses upon recommendation of union officers.

In his meeting with Johnson, Boyd reviewed developments leading up to the program, discussing future courses and took time out to view a plaque that had been presented to the University during the labor seminar.

"This plaque symbolizes an effort our fallen companions helped start," Boyd said, "and one which they, even in death, still help to support."

CLYDE BOYD (left), district labor education coordinator of the United Steelworkers and a Granite City alderman, examines a plaque presented to the Southwestern Campus of SIU. With him is Norman Johnson, director of the University's Labor Institute which started in October, sponsored by area union organizations and SIU-SW. The plaque, which was presented by unions, eulogizes workers killed during the construction of the campus.

SIU-SW Experiment

Students Self-Government Plan for Off-Campus Housing

An experiment in student self-government for off-campus housing is under way at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

Since there are no-campus student housing facilities, a growing group living beyond commuting range seeks off-campus accommodations in the campus area. University regulations require that single undergraduate students live in a co-ed housing which meets minimum standards of health, safety and environment conducive to study. Adult on-the-scene supervision is also required, and the housing must be available to all regardless of race, color, religion or nationality.

To help make housing available in situations where the owner does not live on the premises, SIU-SW is designating mature students as resident managers. Forty-four resident managers have been appointed this year throughout the metropolitan area.

Resident managers are chosen for their academic standing, maturity and ability to deal successfully with other people. The selection process includes written recommendations and a personal interview with the property owner and the housing coordinator.

Responsibilities of Managers

Managers include care of the property, maintenance of an acceptable living situation, communication with the residents, advising students on services available through the University and supervision of behavior of residents.

The managers serve as go-betweens for the university housing office and property owners in the solution of housing problems.

William D. Burcky, SIU-SW's housing coordinator, conducts monthly in-service training meetings for the resident managers to exchange information on housing problems.

The response of both managers and area landlords toward the experimental program has been favorable.

"Their cooperation and enthusiasm are helping to assure the availability and quality of off-campus housing," Burcky says. "Property owners desiring to have units designated as acceptable off-campus housing for SIU-SW students are invited to contact the university's housing office which will arrange for an inspection of the property and notify the owner of the result. If the landlord agrees to comply with SIU-SW regulations, the housing will be classified as an accepted living center for the academic year. Additional resident managers can be appointed as the need arises, Burcky indicated."

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SHOW preparations are in full swing at Granite City high school for the special art department program to be staged Dec. 4. Inspecting some of the completed items are Miss Kathryn Kratz, instructor, and David McFarland, student.

Annual Christmas Show Set Dec. 4 at GCHS

At least 101 gift wrapping ideas, along with tips on holiday decorations will be featured of the annual Christmas Show to be staged Dec. 4 at Granite City high school auditorium.

The show, initiated by Eugene L. Alassi, director of art education for the school system, always attracts a capacity audience. This year's program will be held at 7:30 p.m.

Preparations for the show began several weeks ago and are nearly complete, Alassi said today.

Many of the items to be displayed are made of styrofoam that has been carved, and there are papier mache holiday figures for use as indoor and outdoor decorations.

The displays fill the entire stage of the auditorium. Many special gifts of pastel colored centerpieces will be given away during the show.

Demonstrations of the holiday decorating ideas will be given by the art department under the direction of Alassi.

Last year was announced as the last show, because of a shortage of evergreen materials, but a new source was found and the public service program was reinstated for this year.

3 Special Use Permits Approved by Board

Requests for three special use permits by area residents were approved by the Madison county board of supervisors Wednesday afternoon upon recommendations of the county zoning board of appeals. They were granted to:

June Thwaitt, owner, for a mobile home and a yard area variation in an M-2 general manufacturing district in Chouteau township.

Evelyn Caple, owner, to operate a beauty shop in her home in an R-3 one-family residence district in Nameoki township.

George and Catherine Lindley, owners, to construct an accessory building behind a principle build to stable horses in an agricultural district in Nameoki township, with the stipulation that when any of the adjacent property is rezoned for residential purposes that the permit be terminated and that the owners of the property be given six months to phase out the animal keeping operation.

502 Parking Meter Violators Sought

Granite City police are preparing summons for the court who have failed to pay parking meter fines.

Lt. William Condis, head of the traffic division, reported that 1100 notices were sent to delinquent violators, and 502 failed to respond.

If they report prior to receiving the summons, the fines will be limited to $2, he noted. Otherwise, fines set by the court are $10, including costs.

He said the court also is preparing warrants for the arrest of other drivers who ignored previous court orders. An appearance date is to be set, and the older violators can expect stiffer fines, Lt. Condis said.

Bid Call for County Robies Control Center

The Robies control committee of the Madison county board of supervisors will receive sealed bids for construction of a Robies control center until 10 a.m. Dec. 13 when they will be opened at the county courthouse in Edwardsville.

The center is to be located on Route 143 east of Edwardsville. Plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of John L. Kraynak, county auditor, in the courthouse. Bid proposals should provide a tentative completion date, with Jan. 1 as the starting date of construction.

Fires Reported at Home, Starch Plant

Firemen were called to the home of Leon Barrett, 2130 Grand avenue, where damage listed at $300 was caused by smoking in bed. Damage included $200 to the building and $100 to the contents. They were on the scene a half hour.

They also were called to the Union Starch & Refining Co. plant at 12:15 a.m. Thursday as sparks in a flash dryer stack caused a fire. No loss was reported. They were on the scene an hour and 35 minutes.

STUDY LAMP AWARD for Miss Victoria Brown, Venice high school student, being presented by N. W. Hall, lead promotion supervisor for Illinois Power Co.

VHS Student Wins IPC Essay Contest

Miss Victoria Brown, a Venice high school student and daughter of Ray Brown, 412 Main street, is the winner of a study lamp in a contest conducted by Illinois Power Co. The presentation was made last week by N. W. Hall, a company supervisor.

Miss Brown won the award with an essay she wrote after taking a tour of the Wood River power plant last month with other high school students. Her essay is now entered in area competition for an award of stock shares.

The judging in this phase of the contest will be completed in the late spring and will include students from most schools in this area.

EOC Officials Oppose Program Interference

Opposition to proposed restructuring of the staff of the New Careers Program has been expressed by the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission which this week will notify the Bureau of Works Program of the U. S. Department of Labor of its stand.

Madison county joined with St. Clair county in opposing suggested staff changes by the bureau of work programs as outlined in a letter received by the St. Clair County Commission outlining the creation of two new staff positions.

Staff members in other positions would be promoted to assistant director and director of training under the changes proposed by the bureau.

Maurice Harris, director of the Madison county EOC program, said, "We object to the fact that they want to put persons into the new jobs when they do not know the qualifications of those persons. This is control from without. We want to be in on the changes that involve our community."

Harris said that he and Alfred E. Lucas, director of the St. Clair county program, will draft a letter to the bureau protesting its attempts to change the New Careers structure and that they would later plan their own reorganization of the program.

Arrested after Mishap

Lloyd Adams, East St. Louis, was charged with making an improper left turn when his auto crossed a yellow lane divider and struck the right side of the auto of Phyllis C. Polley, 4134 North drive, who was in a left turn lane at St. Clair avenue and Nameoki road at 6:45 p.m. Thursday.

Miss Hamilton, Larry Beyer Exchange Vows

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Madison, was the scene of the wedding Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock of Miss Marilyn Kay Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hamilton, 1917 Fifth street, East Madison, and Larry Lee Beyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip M. Beyer, who reside at Rural Route Four, Edwardsville.

Fr. Sylvester Mick officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with large white pom poms, blue ribbons and greenery. Mr. Hamilton escorted his daughter down the white-carpeted aisle, giving her in marriage.

She was attired in a bridal gown of Chantilly lace with a Sabrina neckline, tapered sleeves and a Victorian pannier skirt revealing train of lace ruffles that extended to a chapel train. The neckline and train were trimmed in sequins and seed pearls.

The crown of seed pearls and iridescent held an elbow-length veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses, large pom poms and ivy with a detachable rose corsage.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Michael Hyman, the bride's sister, and bridesmaids, Miss Flecia Legate, Miss Connie Legate, Mrs. Thomas Green and Miss Patricia Baker, cousins of the bride, were gowned in blue.

Each dress was fashioned with an Empire bodice, round neckline, A-line style, bell sleeves of pale blue brocade and a skirt of deep blue peau de soie. Each had a brocade train of light blue lined in dark blue peau de soie.

The sleeves and trains were hand-embroidered with pink rosebuds.

Their headpieces were pill-boxes of peau de soie with nose veils. White carnations with matching blue ribbons formed teardrop cascades carried by NOVEMBER BRIDE, Mrs. Larry Lee Beyer, who was Miss Marilyn Kay Hamilton before her wedding Saturday at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Madison.

The groom, Larry Lee Beyer, was dressed in a tuxedo with a white shirt and a dark bow tie. He was standing next to the bride.

Suzette Hamilton, the bride's sister, flower girl, was attired in pale blue matching the attendants' gowns. Her dress had a round neck, bell sleeves, full skirt of blue ruffles of nylon tulle and an overskirt in open coat fashion of matching brocade. A cummerbund of dark blue peau de soie formed a large bow in the back. The sleeves and overdress were trimmed in pink hand-embroidered rosebuds, and she carried white carnations in a round bouquet tied with blue ribbons.

Oscar Bettorf, the groom's cousin, was ring bearer. Phillip L. Beyer, the groom's brother, served as best man, with Michael Beyer, another brother of the groom, Donald Butch and Jim Thomas, cousins of the groom, and Rick Blake as groomsmen.

Dennis Ragsdale and Michael Hyman, the bride's brothers-in-law, and Wayne Bryant, the groom's cousin, seated those arriving at the church.

Mrs. Hamilton, mother of the bride, selected a coat dress of powder blue and white metallic, with royal blue accessories.

The groom's mother wore a pink sheath of peau de soie with a cage of French Chantilly re-embroidered lace. Pink accessories were worn.

Each mother had a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Miss Christine Bettorf, cousin of the groom, presided over the guest book.

A wedding breakfast was served in the home of the bride's parents.

The reception was held at the Polish Hall in Madison.

The young couple will reside in Edwardsville upon returning from a wedding trip to the Lake of the Ozarks.

The former Miss Hamilton attended St. Mary's school and is a graduate of Madison high school. She is a bookkeeper at the First National Bank in Madison.

Mr. Beyer attended Madison public schools and is a graduate of Edwardsville high school. He is employed as a warehouse clerk at the Surplus Store in Granite City.

Miss Faye Lillian Null Bride of Larry Bouwman

THE former Miss Faye Lillian Null, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Null, St. Louis, she was married Saturday evening at St. Peter's United Church of Christ, St. Louis.

In a candlelight ceremony, the marriage of Miss Faye Lillian Null, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Null, 2127 Sixty-ninth street, St. Louis, and Larry Melvin Bouwman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis G. Bouwman, 3100 Wayne avenue, was solemnized Saturday evening at St. Peter's United Church of Christ in St. Louis.

Rev. Thomas Tupper officiated at the 7 o'clock ceremony and a reception was held afterward at American Legion Post 280, Normandy, Mo.

The bride, in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length white peau de soie gown in an A-line style. Appliques of Chantilly lace adorned the bodice and skirt of the long-sleeved gown and a matching train cascaded from the shoulders.

A fingertip veil was secured by a petal-shaped headpiece and the bride carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

The maid of honor was Miss Charlene Moeller, a sister of the bride. Her full-length A-line velvet gown with a short train, chiffon sleeves and velvet wristband was in a gold tone. She carried a long cascade of yellow roses and rust colored mums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Darlene Bouwman, a sister of the groom, in moss green, Miss Mary Ann Leagus, in emerald green and Miss Norma Null, a sister of the bride, in forest green, wore gowns styled similarly to that of the maid of honor. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow mums and rust roses.

Donna Moeller, a niece of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore a gown of gold velvet and carried a basket of yellow and rust mums. Timothy Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cole, served as ring bearer for the double-ring ceremony in a forest green velvet suit.

Terry McCormick served as best man and Fred King, Terry Meyer and Dennis Null, a brother of the bride, made up the list of groomsmen.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Null chose a dress of azure blue with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations and red roses.

Mrs. Bouwman wore green lace with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations and yellow roses.

The bride is a graduate of Normandy high school. She attended the University of Missouri and is employed as a hairdresser in St. Louis.

The groom graduated from Granite City high school and is attending the Belleville junior college. He is employed by the Ross Construction Co.

Following a short wedding trip, the newlyweds will reside at 2231 Delmar avenue, Granite City, after Dec. 5.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included the grandmother of the groom, Mrs. L. DeVos, Grand Rapids, Mich.; an aunt of the groom, Mrs. Earl Rink, Grand Rapids; an uncle and aunt of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berg and daughters, Rosemary, Susan and Peggy, of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. Mary Leffler, Mt. Vernon, Ill.; Mrs. Emma Schonhoff and Mrs. Jean Spurlock of Caseyville; and Mr. and Mrs. George Crain of Belleville.

MRS. RICHARD J. BRIGHT, whose Thanksgiving Eve wedding was solemnized at St. Peter United Church of Christ. She is the former Miss Janis Lee Zimmer, daughter of Mrs. Roland Frank Zimmer, 2506 Pine street, and the late Mr. Zimmer.

Bright-Zimmer Nuptial Ceremony Thanksgiving Eve

Candlelight illuminated the sanctuary of St. Peter United Church of Christ for the wedding Wednesday evening of Miss Janis Lee Zimmer and Richard Jon Bright.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Roland Frank Zimmer, 2506 Pine street, and the late Mr. Zimmer of Granite City. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bright, reside at 1015 Iowa street, Madison.

Rev. Robert J. Baumann officiated at the eight o'clock double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with urns of white blossoms and branched candelabrae.

Wedding music was furnished by Robert Dial, at the organ, who also accompanied the soloist, Howard Mason, who sang "O Perfect Love," "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The former Miss Zimmer was escorted down the white-carpeted aisle by her uncle, Larry Zimmer of Edwardsville, who gave her in marriage.

She chose a pure de sole gown re-embroidered with Alencon lace that reflected the Victorian influence. The high-necked neckline was accented with a mini-yolk of lace traced with delicate seed pearls and the elbow-length sleeves had matching scalloped lace trim.

The skimmer-type gown was detailed with a wide lace border at the hemline and a detachable wateau train, cascading from the shoulders, was bordered in open applique lace and terminated in a cathedral-length train. A profile lace headpiece enhanced with seed pearls and crystal drops, forming a waterfall effect, was attached to a melody veil of imported French bridal illusion, and she carried a cascade arrangement of Phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy, framed with velvet loops.

Miss Barbara Jo Zimmer served her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Whittle, a cousin of the bride, Miss Diane Winter, and Mrs. Michael Hickman of Dayton, O., the bridegroom's sister. The attendants were dressed alike in strawberry karati gowns, fashioned with A-line skirts sweeping into fullness at the back. The Empire bodices had bateau necklines and elbow-length tea-cup sleeves. Brief bouffant veils encircled matching forward headpieces and their flowers were green Fuji mums and leatherleaf fern, forming semi-crescent bouquets.

Fred Bright Jr., the bridegroom's brother, was best man, with Gene Heckler Jr., John Novich and John Hutchings as groomsmen.

The corps of ushers was headed by William H. Stethem, the bride's uncle, and Carl Spahr, a uncle of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Zimmer selected a champagne satin brocade frock with matching accessories, while Mrs. Bright chose an aqua lace ensemble. Both mothers had corsages of white cocktail orchids.

Serving as candlelighters were Misses Anne and Emily Stethem, cousins of the bride. A reception was given at the VFW hall, 2044 Washington avenue, immediately following the ceremony.

After a honeymoon trip to Tun-Tan-A, Lodge, Mo., the couple will be at home at 2121 Edison avenue.

The former Miss Zimmer was graduated from Granite City high school and is employed as a secretary at the Granite City Army Depot. Her husband attends Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus and is a part-time Depot employee.

MRS. WILLIAM MICHAEL ORRISON. The former Miss Linda Jeanne Jungels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Jungels, 2541 State street, who was married Saturday afternoon at St. Peter United Church of Christ. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Orrison, reside in Lacon, Ill.

Miss Linda Jeanne Jungels, Wm. M. Orrison are Wed

Urn holding bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and pom-poms, together with lighted tapers in branched candelabra, decorated the altar of St. Peter United Church of Christ for the wedding Saturday of Miss Linda Jeanne Jungels, daughter of Alty and Mrs. Charles H. Jungels, 2541 State street, and William Michael Orrison, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Orrison, 215 S. Ida street, Lacon, Ill.

The ceremony was performed at four o'clock by Dr. Robert J. Baumann.

Wedding selections were provided by Mrs. June Nightingale Branding, soloist, who sang "The Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap and "I Love Thee" by Grieg.

Miss Charlene Klapperich, a roommate of the bride at Illinois State University, was the maid of honor, with the bride's cousin, Miss Mina Lyn Tarpo, as bridesmaid.

Mr. Orrison was attended by Jerry Diamond of Bloomington, Ill., as best man, and his brother, Greg Orrison, as groomsmen.

The corps of ushers included Howard Jungels, the bride's brother, Kyle Tarpo, a cousin, and Richard Lee and Dick Atabery of Bloomington.

Candlelighters were Paul Jungels, also a brother of the bride, and a cousin, Tommy Tarpo.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father who gave her in marriage.

She chose an imported ivory brocade gown, fashioned in the Victorian influence. The Empire-style bodice featured a rounded neckline and a long tapered sleeve ending in petal cut manner at the wrists. The front of the gown was enhanced with an inverted pleat effect, forming the interior sheath skirt, and a full cathedral-length train flowed from the shoulders.

Her bouquet of white imported French bridal illusion, melody length, was secured with a forward headpiece created of delicate petals, embellished with seed pearls, and she carried a cascade of white daisy pompons and lilies of the valley, surrounding a detachable corsage.

Miss Klapperich and Miss Tarpo were identical gowns of high-lit green silk lace. Their bodices, designed on Empire lines, were caught in the center front with a matching tone satin bow. Their sleeves were full-length and tapered, and a wateau panel of chiffon cascaded downward from a lace cape effect. On their hair they had brief matching veils attached to pearl edged combs and they held nosegays of mixed bronze daisy pom-poms and orange snowdrift pom-poms.

The former Miss Jungels was graduated in 1965 from Granite City high school, where she was a member of the National Honor Society, Masque and Gavel and the Latin American ensemble which twice toured Mexico. Presently in her junior year at Illinois State University, she is active with ISU Elementary Education Club.

Mr. Orrison will be graduated from Illinois State University in January where he lettered four years in golf and served as team captain. Now a golf pro at the Bloomington Country Club, the bridegroom also holds state championship medals in the sport.

A reception was given at the Lewis and Clark restaurant in East Alton, immediately following the ceremony. Miss Deanne Jungels of Chicago, a cousin of the bride, presided at the guest book.

The couple will be at home at 1011 N. McLean street, Bloomington, Ill.

Earlier last week, members of the wedding party attended a rehearsal dinner at the Rose Bowl restaurant.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William Jungels sr. of Lockport, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freund and daughter, Mary Ann, of Barrington, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. William Jungels jr. of Finley Park, Ill., Tony Jungels of Homewood, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brockman of Huntley, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. George Jungels and children, Steven and Deanne, at Miss Grace Cook, all of Chicago.

A number of college friends of the young couple also attended the ceremony and reception.

Smoking Hazards to be Topic At PTA Council Session

Two films describing the hazards of smoking will be viewed by members of the Granite City Area Council of PTAs, at the council's bi-monthly meeting Thursday evening at Lake elementary school.

Featured on the 7:30 p.m. program will be the films "Who Me?" and "Breaking the Habit." Pamphlets, posters and other materials relating to the subject of smoking will be available to all PTA units at Thursday's meeting.

A special guest, Mrs. Ruth

Wilderman, a representative of the American Cancer Society, will attend Mrs. Patricia Polly, council president, reported. She added that all Granite City PTA units are being urged to have delegates at the session.

ENTERTAINERS AT DINNER

Mrs. Pearl Thomas, 2608 Hodges avenue, had as Thanksgiving Day dinner guests, her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Burton and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Metcalf, all of Granite City.

Miss Harlan is Bride Of Fred C. Wahrenburg

Miss Marion Elizabeth Harlan, daughter of Mrs. L. C. Harlan, 1724 Fourth street, Madison, and the late Dr. L. C. Harlan, and Fred C. Wahrenburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Wahrenburg, 2904 East 24th street, were united in marriage Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the First United Presbyterian Church in Madison.

Rev. Frank Christ, pastor officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The soloist, Roy Hill Jr., sang "If I Could Tell You" and "I Love Thee, Dear," with Mrs. Leonard Miller at the organ.

The bride chose a romance blue cage dress of all-over beaded lace, with a rounded neckline and three-quarter-length sleeves. Her flowers were white aristocrat roses and lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harlan Jr., brother and sister-in-law of the bride, were the attendants.

Henry Wahrenburg Jr., brother of the groom, seated the guests.

Mrs. Harlan wore pale pink lilies and darker pink aristocrat roses.

The bride's mother, Mrs. L. C. Harlan, chose a beige brocade costume suit. She wore a corsage of bronze cymbidium orchids.

The groom's mother was attended in a pink lame matelasse two-piece dress. Her corsage was of neutral cimbidium orchids.

Mrs. Jack Uffers presided over the guest book.

A reception was held at the Rose Bowl following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Wahrenburg are both employed at Granite City Steel Co. and will reside at 13 Riviera drive.

Circle Plans Yule Meeting

Plans for a Christmas party on Dec. 21 at the home of Mrs. Walter Pearson, 2566 State street, were completed last week at the monthly meeting of Circle One of the United Presbyterian Women's Organization of the First Presbyterian Church.

Members met with Mrs. Walter Johnson, 2842 State street, who served coffee and rolls to 12 ladies. Mrs. Dawson Wade offered the "Prayer for Missionaries" and Mrs. Henry Luaders, businesswoman, conducted a brief business session.

Harmony Class 25th Anniversary

The Harmony Sunday school class of Niedringhaus Memorial Methodist Church celebrated its 25th anniversary Saturday evening in Wesley Hall. Sixty-two members, former members, teachers and friends enjoyed a covered dish dinner.

The dining tables were decorated with pink carnations and silver ferns and there was a canopy of blue and white crepe paper streamers over the serving table.

The president of the class, Marvin Barnes, and his wife were presented with a boutonniere and corsage. Dr. Ira Thetford, former pastor at Niedringhaus, gave the invocation.

Messages from friends unable to attend were read and charter members and former teachers were recognized. Those present who helped organize the class Oct. 24, 1942, were Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bolliger and Mrs. Dorothy Todder. Ralph Bailey and Mrs. Quincy Mathis were formerly teachers.

Warren Simpkins, choir director, accompanied by Mrs. Simpkins, led the group in several "partner" songs. Rev. Dean Blackburn, Rev. Paul Sims and Simpkins engaged in a impromptu skit in which they joined as a trio to sing three numbers.

A panel, Marvin Barnes, Rev. Blackburn, Albert E. Cartwright, the class teacher, and Mrs. Dorothy Frohman, Fred Stith and Mrs. Ethel Marie West entertained with the game "20 Questions." Natural wonders, famous structures, scientists, inventors and politicians were identified by the panel.

Mrs. Pearl Campbell read an original poem in which she had woven the history and events of the class. Rev. Sims closed the program with a devotional message on the theme "Harmony in Our Daily Lives."

Table bouquets were presented to the class teachers and copies of Mrs. Campbell's poem in a 25th anniversary book were given to those attending.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Madhis of St. Louis, Mrs. Tedder of Anna, Mo., Dr. and Mrs. Thetford of Harrisburg, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carver of Troy, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baehr of Decatur.

Hosts who coordinated the dinner and the evening's activities were Mr. and Mrs. John R. Lerch, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lynn and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lyde.

Warren Simpkins, choir director, accompanied by Mrs. Simpkins, led the group in several "partner" songs. Rev. Dean Blackburn, Rev. Paul Sims and Simpkins engaged in a impromptu skit in which they joined as a trio to sing three numbers.

A panel, Marvin Barnes, Rev. Blackburn, Albert E. Cartwright, the class teacher, and Mrs. Dorothy Frohman, Fred Stith and Mrs. Ethel Marie West entertained with the game "20 Questions." Natural wonders, famous structures, scientists, inventors and politicians were identified by the panel.

Mrs. Pearl Campbell read an original poem in which she had woven the history and events of the class. Rev. Sims closed the program with a devotional message on the theme "Harmony in Our Daily Lives."

Table bouquets were presented to the class teachers and copies of Mrs. Campbell's poem in a 25th anniversary book were given to those attending.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Madhis of St. Louis, Mrs. Tedder of Anna, Mo., Dr. and Mrs. Thetford of Harrisburg, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carver of Troy, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baehr of Decatur.

Hosts who coordinated the dinner and the evening's activities were Mr. and Mrs. John R. Lerch, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lynn and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lyde.

SOCIETY

Installation Tonight for OES

Granite Chapter 860, Order of Eastern Star, held its last meeting of the year Friday evening at the Masonic Temple and made plans for this evening's ceremony for installation of new officers at 8 o'clock.

Guest of honor at Friday's meeting was Helen Presswood, a member of Granite Chapter. Four new members were escorted and presented with gifts.

A special memorial service was presented by the Star Points and worthy matron for 10 deceased members.

Vivian Blankenship, worthy matron, and Harmon Presswood, worthy patron, commented on the past year's activities for the 60 members present.

Following the meeting, a luncheon was served in the dining room which was decorated in a Thanksgiving theme.

MRS. DOUGLAS TRICE, JR., the former Miss Mary Jacinta Waters. They were wed recently at the Mission Baptist Church, Madison. The bride is the granddaughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Waters, 1108 Calhoun street. The bridegroom's parents reside at 121 Lee Wright Homes, Venice. The couple will reside at 1011 Bissell street.

Janice Kreher, Richard Atkinson Are Married

Miss Janice Faye Kreher and Richard Allen Atkinson, ETN/3 U. S. Navy, exchanged wedding vows in a ceremony Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rt. Magr. William J. Cassin of Springfield, Ill., officiated at the double-ring ceremony at St. Elizabeth Roman Catholic Church, Pontoon and Johnson roads, before an altar decorated with bouquets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Francis Judd, organist, presented several selections of wedding music.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Otto O. Kreher, 3949 Lake street, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Atkinson, 5138 Lakewood drive.

Mr. Kreher, a Pontoon village trustee, escorted his daughter down the white-carpeted aisle, giving her in marriage.

She chose a floor-length gown of white rayon peau, featuring a fitted bodice and a Sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves. Re-embroidered Chantilly lace accented the Empiro waist and extended down the front of the skirt. A border of lace encircled the hemline and appliques of lace were repeated on the full detachable chapel train.

Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was secured by a pillbox of Chantilly lace and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, carnations and lilies of the valley.

Miss Charlotte Atkinson, sister of the groom, maid of honor, and Miss Kathleen Weisemborn and Miss Barbara Parkinson, cousin of the bride, bridesmaids, wore identical dresses of avocado Venice lace designed with Empire bodices, elbow-length sleeves and relaxed sheath crepe of pistachio. Detailed at the back of each neckline was a cascading wattleau crepe panel centered with a wide banding of Venice lace.

Each headpiece was of avocado-tinted net attached to a bow with a short nose-tip veil. All carried nosegay bouquets of carnations tinted to match the dresses.

Cathy Smith, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was patterned after those of the bridesmaids with an avocado lace Empire bodice, short sleeves and a crepe skirt of eggshell, with a cascading wattleau crepe panel centered with a wide banding of lace. She carried a basket of rose petals.

Darren Reeder, a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Gary Lomax served as best man, with Jack Lewis and Danny Kreher, a brother of the bride, as groomsmen. Ricky Singleton, a cousin of the bride, and James Lewis were ushers.

Mrs. Kreher chose for her daughter's wedding a skimmer dress of toast and ivory with three-quarter-length sleeves and matching accessories. To complement her ensemble she wore a corsage of yellow cymbidium orchids.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Atkinson, was attired in a wedgewood blue suit dress and a winter white hat. Her flowers were white cymbidium orchids.

A breakfast for the wedding party was served at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parkinson, 2708 Madison avenue, immediately following the ceremony.

An evening reception was held at the Long Lake fire hall at 6:30.

The rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening by the groom's parents at their home. The newly-married couple honeymooned at Tan Tar A at the Lake of the Ozarks and will return here Dec. 1. The bride will continue to reside with her parents and her husband will return to his ship, the U.S.S. Providence. Its home port is Yokosuka, Japan.

The former Miss Kreher graduated from Granite City high school in 1967 and is employed in St. Louis.

Mr. Atkinson is a 1964 graduate of Granite City high school and attended Southern Illinois University's Alton center before entering the Navy in January 1966.

MRS. RICHARD ATKINSON, whose wedding took place Saturday morning at St. Elizabeth's Roman Catholic Church. The bride is the former Miss Janice Faye Kreher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto O. Kreher, 3949 Lake street.

MRS. LEO H. LAROSE, the former Miss Beverly Vaughn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Vaughn, 3000 Faith avenue, whose wedding was Saturday evening at the First Assembly of God Church.

Miss Beverly Vaughn Is Bride of Leo H. LaRose

The wedding of Miss Beverly Vaughn, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Vaughn, 3000 Faith avenue, and Leo H. LaRose, son of Mrs. June Scherger, 2923 Palmer avenue, and the late Leo LaRose, took place Saturday evening at the First Assembly of God, 24th street and Grand avenue.

Rev. M. A. Grotf performed the double-ring ceremony at 7:30 before an altar decorated with arrangements of white gladioli, green palms and a branched candelabra with lighted tapers.

Candlelighters were Gary Vaughn, brother of the bride, and Wayne Kopchak, a nephew of the bride.

Miss Connie O'Guin and Miss Debbie Knapp, soloists, were accompanied at the organ by Miss Kodin Mathenia for their selections, "Sunrise, Sunset" and "I'll Be There for You."

The bride was escorted down the white-carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father. Her floor-length gown of white pique de soie was designed with a scoop neckline trimmed with tiny seed pearls. The bracelet sleeves were edged in lace. The Empire waist and straight skirt were adorned with clusters of white Chantilly lace, as was the long, full circular train.

Fabric leaves trimmed with crystals and pearls secured the three-tiered fingertip veil of imported pure silk illusion. She carried an offside cascade of white gardenias, stephanotis and variegated ivy with a detachable corsage.

Miss Carole Starling, maid of honor, and Mrs. Harry Peterson, Miss Pat Turner and Miss Carolyn Jenkins, bridesmaids, were dressed alike in floor-length gowns of avocado velvet with matching headpieces and circular nosegay veils.

The dresses were trimmed with matching bows and streamers attached to the backs of the gowns and flowing to the hemlines. Each carried a cascade bouquet of gold and bronze pom-poms.

Miss Beth Ann Harp, a niece of the groom, served as junior bridesmaid and Miss Teri Lynn Harp, also a niece of the groom, was the flower girl. They wore identical gowns, floor length, of white velvet trimmed in avocado with matching veils. The junior bridesmaid carried a miniature cascade bouquet of gold and bronze pom-poms and the flower girl carried a white basket of petals.

Master Keith Peterson was the ring bearer.

Best man was a cousin of the groom, Dan Jones. Larry Peterson, John Kozak, Michael Marler, Ronald Thompson, Dennis Huebner and Sonny Stark completed the corps of groomsmen.

Mrs. Vaughn, the bride's mother, wore a three-piece teal blue knit suit with matching accessories and a corsage of white pom-poms tipped in blue. The groom's mother, Mrs. Scherger, chose a dress of brown crepe, sheath design, with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of gold and bronze carnations.

A wedding reception immediately followed the ceremony in the church Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. Scherger entertained the wedding party at a rehearsal dinner in her home Friday evening.

The bride is a graduate of Granite City high school and is presently employed as a secretary in St. Louis.

Mr. LaRose is a graduate of Granite City high school, is employed at Union Starch & Refining Co. as a laboratory technician and will attend SIU-SW in January.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Skiba of Detroit, Mich., a brother-in-law and sister of the groom.

Steve Kopchak, 58, of 1921 North Ninth street, St. Louis, a former Madison resident, was dead upon arrival at 9 a.m. Friday at St. Louis City Hospital. He had collapsed at his home and was found by a neighbor.

Mr. Kopchak retired about six months ago after working 20 years at a chemical plant in St. Louis. He retired because of illness.

He was a native of Madison and lived in St. Louis for 35 years.

Survivors include a daughter, Miss Lavene Kopchak of Washington Park; a brother, John of Madison, and a sister, Mrs. Mike (Mary) Starko of Granite City.

Funeral services were held today. Further information is given in today's obituary column.

DeMolay Legion of Honor for Two GC Men

Gilbert W. "Jack" Kulkamp and Irvin C. Slate Jr. were invested with the DeMolay Legion of Honor in a public ceremony last week at the Belleville Masonic Temple.

The Legion of Honor is the highest degree and honor conferred by the International Supreme Council Order of DeMolay.

It is conferred upon a Senior DeMolay for recognition of a promising career of outstanding adult leadership in some field of worthwhile endeavor that serves God, country or humanity.

Kulkamp and Slate were invested with a crimson cord on which is suspended a Legion of Honor medal and a special gold ring with a red maltese cross which is worn on the little finger of the right hand.

Kulkamp is an insurance consultant and a unit manager with Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., a member of Granite City Lodge 877 AF & AM and the First Presbyterian Church. Slate is an attorney associated with the firm of Lueders-Robertson & Knozen, a member of Triple Lodge 835 AF & AM and of the Niedringhaus Memorial Church. Both are active in civic affairs.

Others receiving the active Legion of Honor were Dr. O. W. Cramer, East St. Louis; Harold Evans, O'Fallon; Rev. Roy W. Field Jr. of East St. Louis; and Wilbur L. Magar, of Belleville.

The Honorary Legion of Honor was also invested on Clarence Blair, Robert G. Hardy, and Oliver C. Joseph all of Belleville and Lee Crowe and Harold A. Mann Jr., both of East St. Louis.

The Honorary Legion of Honor is conferred upon a Master Mason who has performed unusual and meritorious service on behalf of DeMolay. The degree was conferred by members of the Egyptian Precinctory Legion of Honor, Wm. J. Mehl, 33rd Degree Mason and Granite City's First Legion of Honor member served as fifth preceptor in the conferring. Granite City has 38 active Legion of Honor members and six honorary members.

Out-of-State Dumping Ban Still on Books

A motion to rescind a resolution prohibiting out-of-state trucks from dumping refuse in Madison county was tabled at a meeting of the Madison county board of supervisors Wednesday afternoon at the courthouse in Edwardsville.

Jack Clifford, administrator of the county's landfill ordinance, complained that the resolution passed unanimously by the board at its July 17 meeting made the landfill ordinance ambiguous and impossible to enforce.

The motion to rescind the resolution to make the ordinance workable was presented by Carl Buehler, Granite City township assistant supervisor and chairman of the board's sanitation committee.

Gilbert Killinger of Collinsville, who introduced the July measure to prevent St. Louis county refuse from entering Madison county, objected and criticized State Atty. Leon Scroggins for his opinion that the out-of-state ban is unconstitutional.

Judicial Decisions
Killinger has been attempting to go for a court test on the ban. He implied that Scroggins is handing down judicial decisions. "If it's unconstitutional, let a judge say so, not the state's attorney," he said.

Killinger noted that Clifford refused to abide by the board's resolution because he was advised by the state's attorney that he could be held personally responsible for any loss by operators.

He noted that model landfill ordinances show that the board could advise the administrator from personal liability and recommended that this be incorporated in the county's ordinance.

Defendants Suits
He also said that any suits filed as a result of the resolution should be defended by the state's attorney, and he asked that Clifford take immediate steps to stop St. Louis county trash from being transported to the county.

Clifford said that the existing ordinance provides for a $100 license fee for out-of-state vehicles and $10 for in-state vehicles, and that the resolution makes the ordinance ambiguous.

He said that he and Buehler are sympathetic with Killinger's intentions, but until the ordinance is properly amended, it is impossible for him to enforce it.

Meanwhile, he said, refuse trucks are littering county and state highways with trash. Scroggins stated that Killinger's resolution did not amend the county ordinance, and that out-of-state trucks could not be

Special Skating Hours Set; 5000th I.D. Card

A special skating session for the clergy, business and professional men will be held at the Granite City Wilson park from 1 to 3 p.m. Wednesday. It was announced Saturday by Harold Brown, park district superintendent.

Meanwhile, the 5000th I.D. card was issued during the Thanksgiving holiday to Miss Mary Ann Lanahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lanahan, 2833 Benton street. She is a student at Eastern Illinois University.

Brown also reported that total attendance at the rink reached the 20,000 mark since it opened on Oct. 27.

About 400 teenagers attended the YMCA Teen Town Thanksgiving dance Wednesday night. The Bossman provided entertainment.

The turkeys donated by Ciolek's market as prizes were awarded to Vicki Couch, Bill Schermer and Donna Copeland. Trans-Atlantic Troop, stayed at the Saturday night Teen Town dance.

Three Roder Arrests
Speeding charges were filed against three drivers Wednesday night as police operated a radar trap on Nameoki road. Issued tickets were James A. Nelson, 3228 Wayne avenue; David L. Presnaw, 2808 Edwards street; and Robert W. Miller, 3039 Myrtle avenue.

restricted without a proper amendment. Even then, he said, Clifford may still be held personally responsible. He said he would present a legal opinion soon.

The move to table Buehler's repeal resolution was made by Harry Briggs, Nameoki township supervisor, who requested that a clear amendment be presented at the December board meeting. The tabling motion carried by a 33 to 11 vote.

Record Budget
In adopting a record $5,670,325 budget, the board appropriated $2,489,266 for general fund purposes, with a tax levy of $1,472,286, and $3,230,758 for special purposes, with a levy totaling $2,071,785.

Items in the general fund budget include: Judiciary, $453,144; county penal expense, $283,896; county nursing home, $184,240; welfare work order, $174,874; nameoki county administrative expense - courthouse, $330,238; administrative expense other than courthouse, $460,515; education expense, $45,340; miscellaneous, $411,970; and contingencies, $10,700.

An itemization of the special funds, listing the budget figure first and the amount levied second, follows:
County tuberculosis sanatorium, $463,420, $457,420; county highway fund, $556,000, $518,000; county bridge fund, $689,000, $54,000; county retirement fund, $180,000, same; outside independent county audit, $15,000, same; veterans assistance, $12,735, same; county civil defense, $74,874, same; county museum, $18,765, same; maps and plats, $68,270, same; federal aid matching funds for highways, $270,000, $250,000; community mental health board, $259,749, same; detention home, $422,825, $181,925.

Other Action
In other action the board: Purchased two aluminum boats, two trailers and two outboard motors for the County Civil Defense rescue squad from the Granite City Boat & Motor Co. on a low bid of $1228. Purchased a carryall for the county highway department from the Butler agency of Edwardsville on a low bid of $2440.

Purchased two material spreaders at $1075 each and a snow plow for $1385 on low bids from the Highway Supply Co. of Springfield. Approved payment of $14,000 as the remainder of an architectural fee of $25,000 to Samuel E. Sanner of Alton for work on the county's new juvenile detention home. Appropriated $228 of motor fuel tax funds to participate in the East-West Gateway coordinating council's comprehensive highway study for 1967.

Holiday Leaves for December Enlistees

Staff Sergeant Morris L. Cook, local U. S. Army recruiter, today announced that anyone enlisting Dec. 6 through Dec. 20 will go to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., from where they will be released to spend 14 days leave at home before starting basic training.

The recruiting sergeant also said those persons enlisting between Dec. 21 and Dec. 29 are to be assigned to the Army's main recruiting station in St. Louis, and immediately released from that point for a two-week furlough.

Sgt. Cook explained the special provisions in connection with the Army's enlistment program, during the specific periods mentioned, affords military enlistees an opportunity to enjoy the holidays at home with their families prior to initial training assignments.

SEEING IS BELIEVING!

And no matter how hard we tried to describe and picture the APARTMENT COMMUNITY OF OUR LADY OF THE SNOWS, it would be difficult for you to believe, without actually seeing it, that such a wonderful retirement residence existed anywhere in this country.

We're proud of the security, health care, convenience, comfort and pleasure that the Apartment Community provides for retired men and women age 62 and over.

We want you to come in person to see our retirement residence so that you will believe that everything we say is true.

So that you may have the opportunity of spending the better part of a day with us, at no cost of inconvenience to you, we are planning a free bus trip to and from the Apartment Community for all persons interested in seeing our retirement residence.

On December 7 we have arranged to have a chartered Bi-State bus make scheduled stops at designated points in Alton and Granite City to pick up all those persons wishing to pay us a visit.

So, if you are interested in seeing the Apartment Community and hearing firsthand about the benefits offered to men and women of retirement age, just call us COLLECT at CH1estnu 1-3400, Extension 253.

When you call we will tell you the points where the bus will make scheduled stops. You may then select the stop where it will be most convenient for you to meet the bus. The chartered bus will begin to make pickups at 9:40 a.m.

On your arrival, you will be given a brief tour of the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows, be our guests at lunch in our attractive dining room, be taken through the Apartment Community complex, and have an opportunity to visit and chat with some of our residents. On the return trip, starting at 2:30 p.m., you will be taken to the same spot where you boarded the bus in the morning. We are looking forward to seeing you, so please give us a call.

Yule Mail Call (Clip and Save)

Quad-City servicemen and women stationed around the world, whose names and addresses are being published in each issue of the Press-Record as a special pre-Christmas public service. It is suggested that readers clip-out and retain the lists as they appear.

Local residents are invited to include the servicemen on their Christmas mailing list and send greeting cards, letters or packages, thereby helping to brighten the coming holiday season for military personnel who are away from their homes and families. Early mailing is recommended.

Yule Mail Call

1st Christmas Away from Home for Many Local GIs

Two local boys—one who arrived just three weeks ago in Vietnam and the other who will spend his first Christmas away from home in Korea—are included in today's list of servicemen in "Yule Mail Call."

Air Force Base in Georgia. His parents write, "Although we do not live in Granite City, John's father has an auto repair business at 2560 Washington avenue. We would appreciate very much to have our son's name added to the "Yule Mail Call" list.

"John entered the service on May 12 and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and instruction as a helicopter mechanic at Fort Eustis, Va. He is now stationed at Hunter Army AF base in Georgia, where he is working on helicopter maintenance."

Relatives and friends of Quad-City military personnel still may submit the names and addresses for inclusion in the Press-Record's pre-Christmas "Yule Mail Call" project.

To ensure accuracy, it is requested that names and addresses be sent in by letter or post card or the information brought to the newspaper office, 1815 Delmar avenue.

Those submitting the serviceman or woman's name, rank, serial number and correct address, are reminded to include the Army Post Office (APO) and Fleet Post Office (FPO) number when applicable. When area of overseas service is noted, the information will appear in parenthesis after the mailing address.

In another note to the newspaper, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bergschneider of Buck road, Edwardsville, submitted the name and address of their son, Army Pvt. John Bergschneider, who is stationed at Hunter Army

Merger of A. P. Green, U. S. Gypsum Co. Ok'd

Stockholders of A. P. Green Refractories Co. and U. S. Gypsum Co., at separate meetings last week, approved the merger of the two companies.

It is contemplated that the merger will take place by the end of the year.

The business of A. P. Green Refractories Co., headquartered in Mexico, Mo., will continue to be operated under its present name as a wholly owned subsidiary of U. S. Gypsum Co. William S. Lowe, president of A. P. Green, will become a member of the Gypsum board of directors.

TB Christmas Seal Goal In County is $53,800

Quad-Cityans now are receiving Christmas Seals from the Madison County Tuberculosis Association. The seals have been mailed to 61,042 homes in the county in a bid for financial support of the TB x-ray program.

Thomas W. Butler of Alton, Madison County Christmas Seal campaign chairman, said the goal is $53,800. A total of $4269 already had been received by the campaign's kickoff date Nov. 14.

The campaign is conducted exclusively by mail. In Madison county the funds are used to support programs of health education, case detection, community organization, plus medical and social research for tuberculosis, together with programs to research other respiratory diseases such as emphysema and bronchial asthma.

But probably the most well-known project it supports is the annual countywide free chest x-ray survey, a major case detection program.

Last year, contributions from Christmas Seals paid for free x-rays for 26,456 persons in the county.

The association also provides funds for countywide tuberculosis testing of school students, a project which takes in all first, fifth and ninth grade students in public, private and parochial schools in the county. Tuberculin tests were administered to 15,159 students last year. Tuberculin testing of students and school employees is rescheduled to begin early in January.

Plans for the 1968 chest x-ray survey also are currently being made. It will begin Feb. 26 and continue through April, with dates and locations of the mobile unit to be announced in February.

Meeting on Revisions To Mental Health Code

Revisions in the Mental Health Code, which start on Jan. 1, 1968, will be discussed at Alton State Hospital on Dec. 6, in the recreation hall at 1:30 p.m.

Guest speaker conducting the meeting will be Jerome Goldberg, special counsel to the Department of Mental Health, Chicago. Dr. Abraham Simon, hospital superintendent, said, "The new code will be explained to administrators of mental health clinics and hospitals, unit chiefs, program directors, department heads and any interested community citizens are also welcome to attend."

When you talk to your neighbors you'd better talk straight.

That's the way it is with the folks at Illinois Power Company, your straight-answer energy company whose business is to serve you better.

Illinois Power people are local citizens with the same pride and problems that other local people have. The services we bring to our town help it grow and prosper.

From manager to meter reader, Illinois Power people are your neighbors.

If you're from a place far away and I don't expect to be around long, you might be tempted to exaggerate a bit here or bend the facts a bit there, when you talk to people about what you sell.

But if you live here, send your children to school here; if you plan to pay your taxes here, go to church, play pinch or golf and bowl with other local people for a long time, you had better talk straight to your neighbors.

200 Attend Benefit Staging of 'Carnival'

About 200 persons attended Saturday night's benefit performance of "Carnival," staged by The Masquers at Granite City high school.

The performance was given to benefit the expansion and modernization project at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Reports on the school rules and the fact that what had happened in suspension of 17 Negro athletes.

The prepared statement, eight pages in length, said in part: "We did not feel then, nor do we feel now, that this was a racial issue. We felt that in the past there was a continuous interference with the school faculty in the enforcement of their rules and regulations. We still feel the same."

Referring to McManaway's statement, the parents committee said:

"Is Mr. McManaway saying that the parents, as a committee, are not properly informed of what the boys actually were?"

To our recollection, coach Harry Schell, the school superintendent, and the school board members, the superintendent of schools, the parents committee and approximately 10 members of the faculty... in the Madison high school... during a meeting of the school board... was lasted for approximately 12 hours."

The statement outlined in detail the various actions that led to the suspension of the 17 Negro athletes.

It challenged McManaway's statement that the suspension of the 17 Negro athletes was the result of "personal axes to grind."

Explaining that the "policy of the athletic department at Madison high school is to participate in basketball to that of the school board members, the superintendent of schools, the parents committee and approximately 10 members of the faculty... in the Madison high school... during a meeting of the school board... was lasted for approximately 12 hours."

Arrested on Gun Charge

Mrs. Elsie Edmonds, 30, of 517 Garner road, Venice, was arrested by Venice police at 12:05 a.m. Thursday and charged with unlawful use of a weapon. Authorities said Mrs. Edmonds was arrested after her husband, Charles, complained to police that his wife pulled a gun on him in the Robin Nest tavern on Kerr Island. She was carrying a loaded .22 caliber revolver when arrested, police said. She was released on a notice to appear for a magistrate hearing Dec. 6.

Hole Shot in Window

Lillian Sexton, 2413 Dewey avenue, reported at 9:50 p.m. Wednesday that a hole was shot through the rear window of her 1962 auto while it was parked on a church lot at Briarhaven and West Pontoon road.

CONGRATULATING SENATOR Jennings

Randolph (D-W Va.), left, for his work on passage of the new U. S. Air Quality Act of 1967, are Donald F. Cairns, center, plant engineer of the Granite City Steel Co. and president of the Industrial Waste Control Council, and Fred Tucker, manager of pollution control and services for National Steel Co., Pittsburgh. The meeting took place in Washington, D.C.

Attends Signing of U. S. Clean Air Bill

Donald F. Cairns, plant engineer of the Granite City Steel Co. and president of the local area Industrial Waste Control Council, has returned from Washington D. C. where he attended a ceremony for the signing of new legislation for a three-year government war on smog.

President Johnson signed the new Clean Air Act authorizing a $225 million program to combat air pollution. Cairns attended the ceremony at the invitation of the President.

Cairns testified before the Senate subcommittee on air and water pollution, last April.

The new bill gives federal authorities power to set and enforce broad antipollution standards if the states do not act against smog and other causes of air pollution. Until the bill was signed into law, automobile air pollution was subject to federal action.

It also authorizes emergency powers to shut down industries when smog levels reach a danger point. The final appropriation figure was set by the House. The Senate had sought a $750 million authorization.

18th-Delmar Accident

An auto driven by Shelby Coggins, 802 Third street, Venice, who pulled away from a stop sign, collided with another driven by Charles Griggs, 13 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, at 2:40 p.m. Wednesday at 18th street and Delmar avenue.

Observes Stop, Struck

After observing a stop sign, an auto driven by Henry Prince, 2833 Myrtle avenue, was struck in the left side by another driven by Marshall B. McElroy, 2940 Warren avenue, Wednesday at Marshall and Leonard avenues.

Van, Auto Collide

An auto driven by Katherine L. Van Order, 2812 State street, turned into the path of a van driven by Kevin L. Ricks, 3403 Franklin avenue, at 23rd street and Madison avenue at 5:20 p.m. Wednesday, causing a collision.

Moits Return After 21 Months in Africa

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Holt arrived here last week after nearly two years abroad. They spent 21 months in Sierra Leone, an African nation that gained its independence from England in 1961, and toured Portugal, Spain, Italy, France and England during the past two months.

Mrs. Holt, the former Phyllis Phelps, a graduate of Granite City High school and Southern Illinois University, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Phelps, 4808 Warnock avenue.

Dr. Holt, on leave of absence as associate professor of chemistry at Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, Okla., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holt, Antlers, Okla. He graduated from Oklahoma University and received his doctorate degree in 1961 from the University of Illinois.

In Africa he taught chemistry instructors as part of the Aid to International Development program. Their sons, Gregory Neal, five, and Brett Randall, three, returned two months ago with an AID associate and have been dividing their time since then with the grandparents here and in Oklahoma.

A Granite City man was unhurt early Saturday morning when his over-the-road bus was hit by gunfire in East St. Louis. He was Elmer Willis, 2701 Marshall avenue, who continued his run to Evansville, Ind., and returned home early yesterday.

The bus was one of two fired upon in East St. Louis as a wave of sniper fire hit that area, resulting in the death of Joseph Cook, 23, of Caseyville who was shot at 3:30 a.m. Sunday on Hollywood Heights road south of Collinsville as he was lighting from a car.

A passenger on Willis' bus, Melvin Carlisle, 24, of East St. Louis, was cut by a bullet and was given emergency treatment at St. Mary's Hospital there.

The bus was hit by five bullets of small caliber at the front and a shotgun blast at the rear as the bus was stopped at a railroad crossing on Missouri avenue in East St. Louis. Five minutes later, a Continental Trailways bus was struck five times by bullets at the same crossing. No injuries were reported.

Earlier Saturday, a railroad employee in a Terminal Railroad Association switchyard town south of East St. Louis was wounded by sniper fire. He is Joseph Iwanowski, 44, of East St. Louis, who is in critical condition at Missouri Pacific Hospital, St. Louis. Three shots were fired through a window of the tower, striking the switchyard in the back. The tower is 30 feet high.

In addition, a truck driver, told East St. Louis police, was shot at 2:30 a.m. Saturday that his truck was hit by bullets on Missouri avenue near 20th street.

Local CAP Squadron Observing Anniversary

The Granite City Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol will join with more than 2300 CAP units throughout the U. S. to observe the 26th anniversary of Civil Air Patrol on Dec. 1st.

CAP is an all-volunteer force, flies humanitarian relief missions, conducts air search and rescue efforts and helps educate the general American public to the role of aviation and its impact upon the nation. It is the official auxiliary of the U. S. Air Force.

The local group meets at 7 p.m. on Thursdays at the Civil Air Defense headquarters, 1111 Nineteenth street. The commander is Gene Ebling.

Brig. Gen. William W. Wilcox, USAF, CAP national commander, in a congratulatory message to all units paid tribute to the organization's achievements in 1967 and urged CAP members to "even greater achievements in 1968."

National Headquarters Civil Air Patrol is located in Maxwell AFB, Montgomery, Alabama. Civil Air Patrol was founded in 1941 by a group of air-minded individuals who volunteered their services and their privately owned aircraft in support of America's coastlines and borders.

During world war II CAP pilots flew more than 24 million miles on anti-submarine patrol and over 100,000 miles on sensitive courier missions for the Armed Forces.

Today, CAP carries on the tradition begun by those pioneers, flying search and rescue missions throughout the nation, county, state and federal government in national emergency training, and flying mercy missions in relief of people in distress.

CAP cadets, boys and girls ranging from 13 through 17 years of age, participate actively in CAP's aerospace education program. They receive flight training leading to private pilot certification. CAP members operate some 1,800 aircraft.

Other members operate a 16,000 station radar and weather station. CAP also maintains a fleet of 4500 type surface vehicles of all types in logistical support of CAP's flying missions.

Emergency Light Flashes On Truck in RR Transit An emergency light on a truck was flashing and was reported to police about 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

Groups Seeking School Use Must Apply Earlier

Advance board approval for all school building usage was stressed at a Granite City school board meeting Wednesday night.

In the past, scheduling of events at schools was often an accomplished fact by the time written requests reached the board, and disapproval would have proved costly and awkward to organizations, it was noted.

Under new arrangements, letters as well as contracts will be required and all must be timed to permit board action before groups proceed with detailed plans.

Permission to use buildings was granted Wednesday night to the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce and St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary for the Massquers play given Saturday night at the high school.

Local athletic club, soccer clinic each Friday from Dec. 1 to April 26 at the Mitchell school gymnasium; Granite City High School, Central junior high school for basketball.

The board accepted a low bid of $729 from Triangle Heating Co. to install a radiator, thermostat and related equipment at Nidderhous grade school and a bid of $114 from Henge Co. for 60 door lock covers. Melcher-Schene Hardware will provide a lock and a lock cover for $10.75.

A leave of absence for the remainder of the school year was granted Mrs. Kathryn Richardson, 2333 Gary avenue, Nameoki, lower intermediate grade teacher, due to ill health.

Mrs. Diana Kay Kinder, 2510a Edison avenue, GCHS, English teacher, resigned effective Jan. 18.

Traffic Charge

Gary Robertson, 4124 Kaesberg lane, was issued an arrest ticket Saturday evening on a charge of careless driving in the 1700 and 1800 blocks of Madison avenue.

Undergoes Surgery

Norman Alexander, 2837 State street, is a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital where he underwent surgery on Friday.

Answer:

A 14-word Press-Record Want Ad

The U.S. Department of Defense has spent $25,500,000 in operation of the Granite City Army Depot and another $34,543,000 for defense procurement contracts in Madison county during fiscal year 1967, it was reported Friday by Cong. Melvin Price (D) East St. Louis.

Of the total of $54,543,000 in contracts, Cong. Price said, $9,332,912, or 27% of the total, was paid Quad-City industrial and business firms. These included contract totals of $8,115,381 in Madison, $1,265,863 in Granite City and $1,159,668 in Venice.

In addition, he said, expenditures for operation of Scott Air Force base in St. Clair county amounted to $13,690,000, and procurement contracts with St. Clair county businesses involved payments of $17,307,441.

Stimulates Economy
In announcing the figures, Cong. Price, a ranking member of the House Armed Services Committee, noted "Defense spending has undoubtedly provided a needed and beneficial stimulus to the economy (of the Madison-St. Clair county Metropolitan area) during the past year, providing jobs for workers and numerous opportunities for local commerce and industry."

Price's report showed that Army Depot expenditures included almost ten times more salary costs for civilian workers than for military personnel. Military personnel salaries during the period amounted to $1,333,000 while salaries for civilian personnel totaled $12,611,000, Congressman Price said.

Other costs, including contracts, operating costs and research and development expenditures totaled $11,366,000. Local businesses, Price pointed out, "have good opportunities to increase their sales by subcontracting with prime defense contractors in the metropolitan area. Scott Air Force Base and the Granite City Army Depot also provide many procurement opportunities that I hope local business will utilize."

Lists Defense Contracts

Quad-City procurement contracts for the 1967 year include: Granite City: Amco Plumbing & Heating Co., $247; Abels Body Shop, $236; Air Products & Chemicals, Inc., $133,853; Allright Cleaners, $72; A's TV Sales & Service, $988; Aro-Dressel Food, $128,004; Barney's Brakes and Wheel Alignment, $1568; Bill's Cabinet Shop, $300; Biltmore Moving & Storage Co., $5,135; Bloomer Shoppe, $18;
